

Marketing (40 uur):

Are you a marketing super star? Fluent in English and Dutch? Have an affinity with the dance scene? We're looking for YOU!

We're looking for a marketing specialist to join our team.

We at Faul Productions organize yearly events in the techno and house genres that attract about 70,000 visitors on an annual basis. The two biggest events are the Mystic Garden Festival Summer, and the Dockyard Festival ADE. Mystic Garden Festival is an experience-driven event with an emphasis on delivering guests experience through music, decor, street theater and storytelling. Dockyard Festival, while also strongly experience-driven in the theme of a raw, industrial feel, relies also on its booking power to attracting bigger musical names in the techno and house scenes. Besides Mystic Garden Festival Summer and Dockyard Festival ADE, we also host a series of other events, including Tijdmasjien and Cirque Mystique. We are a fast-growing company with the ambition to bring (creative) new concepts to the market.

As a marketing specialist you are an important link in conveying the various storylines of our events to our audience. This includes managing social media, development of marketing materials and concept development.

The position is full-time, and we are open to either an eager junior marketing specialist or a senior marketing specialist.

You'll be working in a fun team at our office in Zaandam. Our office is a 15 min walk from the train station, but also easily accessible by car.

What can you expect from us:

- You will be challenged and given a lot of responsibility;
- A versatile range of tasks, from creatively inventing fairy tales to conveying the raw techno feeling to visitors;
- You will work in a close-knit family team;
- Competitive salary and based on your experience;
- Extras such as phone and laptop;
- Space to grow and develop;

What we expect from you:

- Have affinity with our (creative) events;
- Does not have a 9 to 5 mentality;
- Can work independently and in a structured way. You're not afraid to be thrown in the deep end;
- Someone who knows the ins and outs of TikTok, Instagram and Facebook;
- Good social skills;
- Good problem-solving skills;
- Fluent English in writing and speaking. Native level is a plus;
- Creativity is a pre!
- Command of Photoshop, Illustrator and Indesign

Are you interested in talking to us about this and getting to know each other over a cup of coffee? Then send your CV and motivation to tijmen@faul.nl
